

PROFILE

Hello, my name is Victor and I am a 30 years old media production professional currently based in Bucharest. I have extensive knowledge of audio-visual media formats and contents and I am currently active as a freelance Video Editor. I have worked with clients from all over the world through online platforms such as Elance, oDesk or Fiverr and I also collaborate with local clients when need arises.

I am a pleasant to work with, creative, communicative and hard working person. I am extremely passionate about what I do, I have a great eye for detail and I value perfection. Learning new things comes naturally to me and I possess an affinity for technology, culture, language and arts. Self taught and inquisitive by nature, I have an unquenchable thirst for knowledge and I spend most of my free time researching various topics and constantly gaining new information.

CLIENT FEEDBACK

"Victor is absolutely amazing. He is extremely knowledgeable about his field. He is personable, efficient and a definite problem solver. He went above and beyond to help with our project. He was a pleasure to work with and he tirelessly worked to get the job done. I also appreciate the fact that he was timely with his communication and adherence to the many deadlines we had with the project. I will definitely use him for future projects."

Lynn Cohen-Mays, LA, USA

"We worked with Victor over a number of months and found his work to be consistently very high quality. As well as doing all he was asked to do he added value wherever he could and we would most certainly recommend him unreservedly and would work with him again across any project."

Susan Edwards, Aspen Sachs, London, UK

"Victor's editing skills were a great contribution to our project. Glad to have had him working with us!"

Stanford HCI, Stanford, USA

"I have been satisfied with every job that this freelancer has done. It is quality work, delivered on time, at a fair price."

Joe Pryor, Oklahoma, USA
